Persons meeting one or more of the following qualifiers are asked to submit this background information:

2. Volunteers who work directly with students in a one-to-one or small group setting; or
3. Volunteers who work with students outside the direct physical presence of the Central Noble employee who is authorized to supervise the students.

The authorization for a limited criminal history check can be submitted to the building principal or directly to the receptionist at the superintendent's office where the background check is processed online. There is no charge for the limited criminal history check.

Persons who successfully complete these requirements will be notified and may then volunteer in Central Noble schools.
